Due to academic disruptions in Spring 2020,
students in undergraduate courses with A-F letter grading were permitted to opt-in to satisfactory/credit/no-credit (S/CR/NC) grading before final grades posted. For undergraduates, letter grades A to C correspond to S, letter grades C- to D- correspond to CR, and F grades correspond to NC.

ACCREDITATION - Since 1897, UT has been continuously accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.
CALENDAR SYSTEMS – All course work completed prior to Fall Semester 1988 is under the quarter system. College of Law course work completed after Spring Quarter 1981 is under the semester system.
GRADING SYSTEM

GRADE	INTERPRETATION	UG PRIOR TO FALL 2008	UG FALL 2008	GR PRIOR TO FALL 2016	GR FALL 2016
A	Superior	4.0	4.0	4.0	4.0	GRADES FOR COLLEGE OF LAW-Effective fall semester 2006, the College of Law awards numerical grades and grades of satisfactory/no credit. Numerical grades are reported in 0.1 increments with 0.0 being the lowest possible grade, 0.8 the lowest passing grade and 4.3 the highest grade possible. Grades of 4.1-4.3 are considered to reflect extraordinary performance. Grade point averages will be rounded to the nearest tenth point by the college when determining class rank and honors distinctions although the official university transcript reflects averages rounded to the hundredth decimal place.
A-	Intermediate Grade	N/A	3.7	N/A	3.7
B+	Very Good	3.5	3.3	3.5	3.3

I	Incomplete	0.0	0.0	0.0	0.0
	Incomplete grade computed as failure for undergraduates prior to fall semester 1988
	Incomplete grade computed as failure for graduate students prior to fall quarter 1976.
WF	Withdrew failing	0.0 (discontinued as failing grade fall 2008)
X	Exam missed	0.0 (discontinued fall 1975)

The following grades or notations are used by the university, however, these do not earn quality points and are not used in GPA calculations.

GRADE	EXPLANATION
Aud	Audit (courses not recorded on academic record effective fall 1982.)
Blank	No report
CR	Credit earned grade-represents a grade of C-, D+, D, or D-. Spring 2020 only.
H	Satisfactory honors grade-satisfactory grade that equates to A or B for law and vet med students.
IW	Incomplete due to writing deficiency
N	No progress
NC	No credit-represents a standard of C-, D+, D, D-, F; spring 2020 only represents standard grade of F for undergraduates.
NC Grade	NC-,ND+, ND, ND-, NF, no credit grades-represents a standard of C-, D+, D, D-, F
NG	No grade
NP	No progress or inadequate progress
NR	Non-reported grade
P	Progress (progress toward completion of a thesis or dissertation)
S	Satisfactory (equates to A, B, or C for undergraduates; equates to A or B for graduate students)
SI	Incomplete grade for a course graded satisfactory/no credit
W	Withdrawn
WP	Withdrew passing
WF	Withdrew failing (effective fall 2008)
(*)	Repeated course-All attempted and earned hours and quality points for the course are excluded from the cumulative totals.
(#)	Repeated course-All earned hours for the course are subtracted from the cumulative totals.
IC	Incomplete grade for courses graded A, B, C, no credit grade
CI	Incomplete grade for courses graded S/CR/NC

CREDIT LEVEL AND NUMBERING SYSTEM
U-Undergraduate level courses numbered 100(0) – 400(0)
G-Graduate level courses numbered 500(0) and 600(0)
L-Law level courses
V-Veterinary Medicine level courses
S or R in the course number signifies a service or research course
N in the course number signifies an internship course

TRANSFER POLICY-(Effective fall quarter 1985)-Transfer hours are counted for degree programs but are not computed in the UT grade point average for courses transferred after summer quarter 1985.

GOOD STANDING-Unless otherwise noted by 'ACADEMIC DISMISSAL' student is in good standing and eligible to enroll.
